NEW APPLICATION FOR CLEP

PUC Legal Clinic (PUCLC) would like to invite interested students to apply for its 11th Community Legal Education Program (CLEP). PUCLC CLEP is a two term program which is OPEN TO ALL LAW AND NON-LAW UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE STUDENTS.

Successful applicants will be taught how to teach law, human rights, and democracy through progressive teaching techniques/student-centered methodologies to various communities in both Phnom Penh and rural communities during weekends. Admission is based on competitive factors, including strong interest and commitment to community services, team spirit; interest in legal, human rights, democracy, and social justice issues as well as teaching. After completion of the program, CLEP awards students academic credits and a certified letter.

IMPORTANCE: an interested student should submit an application form (available at PUCLC), a cover letter, a CV, a draft academic transcript, 2 photos (4x6), and relevant attachments (if any). Deadline: NO LATER THAN 16 August 2010 at 5pm.
